

REPORT ON THE INVITATION TO PENTECOST INTERNATIONAL WORSHIP CENTER PROGRAMME ON ENVIRONMENTAL CARE CAMPAIGN

19th March, 2022

INTRODUCTION:

An extended letter from the Pentecost International Worship Center (PIWC) to the Environmental Health Unit of Ablekuma Central Municipal Assembly as an invitation of collaboration on their Environmental Care Campaign Programme, which took course on the 19th of March, 2022. The Deputy Municipal Environmental Health Officer Mr. Ibrahim Abass together with the ward officer, Alidu Abdul Wadud were mandated by the Municipal Environmental Health Officer, Madam Bridget Diapim to represent the Unit.

OBJECTIVE:

The Environmental Care Campaign Programme is an initiative aimed at encouraging both members of the church and the community to adopt safe environmental practices.

It was anticipated among the leadership of the church that our participation will boost their efforts at engendering community ownership of the initiative.

ACTIVITY

On the 19th of March, 2022, the meeting kick started at 10:30am on the Saturday. Selves introductory revealed the presence of some few invited personnel's such as Zoom Lion Ghana, Tema Metropolitan Assembly, some church members, a few landlords/landladies within the jurisdiction with technical know-how in the related activity.

The focus of the meeting was centered on plastics waste which is the most generated waste that results to most of the flooding that is experienced during raining seasons.

The representative from Tema delivered a PowerPoint presentation on the importance, effects and individual responsibility to sanitation. The director of Zoom Lion also addressed issues pertaining to some related complaints of their services and the way forward. The Environmental Health and Sanitation Unit of the Ablekuma Central Municipal Assembly, highlighted on the importance of waste segregation and the by-laws, and also took the advantage to address the importance of the "Operation Clean Your Frontage".

CHALLENGES:

The objective of the meeting was an initiative aimed at encouraging both church members and the community to take ownership of the initiative but only few turned up.

CONCLUSION:

In summary, the meeting was a success.

APENDIX:

Attached are related pictures to the event;

